

Info-Excavation in a Nutshell

Info-Excavation is a non-profit organization created in 1992 by 11 owners of underground infrastructures. All surpluses are reinvested in damage prevention.

Info-Excavation is the only centre for damage prevention in Quebec. It offers a free localization service accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to any individual or company wishing to do excavation work. Other services and tools aimed at damage prevention are also available.

MISSION

Offering services aimed at damage prevention to underground infrastructures or other structures. These services also contribute to safe environment for workers and the public while maintaining the integrity of services and protecting the environment.

VISION

Info-Excavation, a leader and an indispensable resource in locate requests of underground infrastructures, is an essential player towards developing and promoting best practices for damage prevention as well as maintaining the integrity of public services.

ISO CERTIFICATION

For more than 20 years, Info-Excavation has been ISO 9001 certified. To maintain its certification, Info-Excavation must adopt processes that can be measured and documented, then apply them rigorously to meet the highest standards of quality. Services provided are better controlled while ensuring continuous improvements.

|  |                |
|--|----------------|
| Number of Members (As of August 2024) | 302     |
| Owners                                       | 131            |
| Municipalities                               | 107            |
| Partners                                     | 64             |
| Yearly Locate Requests (2023)         | 306 184 |
| Online and Mobile Application                | 96%            |
| Phone  | 4%             |

NE FAITES PAS L'AUTRUCHE.